

Angie Chapdelaine

91 - 137 McGill Rd, Kamloops BC V2C 1L9
418-557-7121, angie.chapdelaine@gmail.com

Education

University of Québec in Chicoutimi

[September 2019 to April 2022]
Bachelor's degree in biology with the specialisation "biodiversity and ecosystems"

College of Jonquière [2017]

Quebec Diploma of College Studies in Natural Sciences

Software

Office suite – Intermediate knowledge

R Studio – Basic knowledge

ArcGIS (ArcMap) – Basic knowledge

JMP software – Basic knowledge

Written and spoken language

French – Written, advanced
Spoken, advanced

English – Written, intermediate
Spoken, advanced

Other trainings

First aid in the workplace Program

Avalanche skills training (AST1)

Employment experience

University of Québec in Chicoutimi – Research assistant [November 2019 to April 2022]

- Samples collection in boreal forest: collection of tree microcores and evaluation of budburst patterns.
- Preparing microcores samples for the cellular analysis with a microtome and analysing the different phase wood formation on a microscope.
- Dendrochronology analysis using "winDENDRO" and "Rinntech" systems.

Spectrum Resource Group / Seneca Enterprises – Tree planter [Summers of 2019 and 2020]

- Planting different tree species as fast as possible on rough terrain in Northern British-Columbia.
- Living in remote locations in forestry camps.

Beneva – Insurance claim agent

[May 2018 to March 2019 & September 2019 to January 2020]

- Opening claim files for car and home insurance
- Directing clients to the right body shop or car rental companies
- Giving an excellent customer service to clients

Student Awards

University of Québec in Chicoutimi

2020 – Selected for the Undergraduate Student Research Awards (USRA). Scholarship offered by the Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (NSERC).

2021 – Recipient of the Undergraduate Student Research Awards (USRA) by the NSERC.

2021 – Recipient of the Supplements of the NSERC Undergraduate Student Research Awards offered by the "Fonds de recherche du Québec (FRQNT)".

2021 – Recipient of a second supplement of the USRA, the Awards Canadian Forest Sector Workforce Diversity undergraduate supplements offered by the NSERC.

References

References can be provided on request.